
Marilyn RogowayMARILYN ROGOWAY*July 11, 1945 ~ December 7, 2014

Marilyn Rogoway, 69, passed away on Dec. 7, 2014 in Vancouver, WA. She was born July 11, 1945 in Portland, OR, the daughter of the late David Allen Goldberg and the late Rosaline Pearl Goldberg.

She attended Grant High School in Portland, OR before graduating from Portland State University with a Bachelor degree in English. She moved on for her post graduate work to the University of Washington in Seattle, graduating with a Master degree in Education. She was a lifelong learner and advocate of general education.

Her passion and her education fueled her 30-year career of teaching, counseling and tutoring.

As a lifelong learner and avid reader, Marilyn sought out volunteer opportunities to help students achieve their goals. She tutored all grades, Kindergarten through college. She also volunteered as a driver for Catholic Community Services to assist those who were too ill to transport themselves to medical appointments.

Listening to classic country music, traveling and collecting souvenirs from her many weekend trips as well as her transcontinental journeys were her other beloved pastimes.

A friend to many of all faiths, Marilyn celebrated diversity as a foundation for strong relationships.

Marilyn was a proud Jewish woman of the Portland and Vancouver communities. Member of both Nevah Shalom Synagogue in Portland and a founding member of Kol Ami Synagogue in Vancouver, she enjoyed leading tours and facilitating classes. She loved being a unique connection between the Christian and Jewish faiths by hosting open Jewish holiday observances in her home.

Marilyn is survived by her brother, Michael Rogoway; son, Ari Rogoway, his wife Lissa Rogoway and their three daughters; as well her daughter, Dodi Li Guillet and her husband Brad Guillet.

Her funeral will be Tues., Dec. 9th, 3:00 p.m. at the Ahavai Shalom Cemetery, 9323 SW First Ave., Portland. There will also be a gathering Tuesday evening, 7:00 p.m. at her home in Vancouver. Please contact Lissa Rogoway for the address, 253-256-2636.

Please sign her guest book at: www.columbian.com/obits.

Published in The Columbian on Dec. 9, 2014
