

Sandra J. Kelly, 75, of Crooked River Ranch, passed away June 5, 2020, at St. Charles Medical Center, Bend. Private entombment services will be held at Deschutes Memorial Gardens, Bend. Memorial contributions may be made in Sandra's name to your local animal shelter.

Sandy was born February 14, 1945, in Portland, Oregon. She attended school in Portland, graduating from Grant High School in 1963. After high school, Sandy worked several jobs before marrying Gordon L. Kelly on February 14, 1969 in Reno, Nevada.

Sandy and Gordon made their home in Portland, Oregon, where Sandra enjoyed being a wife and mother to two boys, Craig and Scott. Once the boys were in school, Sandy went to work for the Multnomah County Library, working as a clerk until retiring in 2007.

Following Sandy's retirement, she and Gordon spent their winters in Arizona. Sandy loved meeting new people, never having met a stranger. She enjoyed entertaining, planning parties and social gatherings, playing cards, traveling and participating in water aerobics. She will be deeply missed by all her family and friends.

Those left to mourn her passing include her husband of 51 years, Gordon; sons, Craig (Vicky) of Lake Oswego, OR and Scott (Janell) of Bend, OR; two sisters, Betty Brown of Dallas, TX and Lee Horton of Portland, OR and four granddaughters.
